

Rated by Experts

Leading the market in clarity and transparency

Contents

Overview	3
Red line criteria for current accounts	4
Red line criteria for foreign use bank accounts	7
Red line criteria for student bank accounts	8
Red line criteria for basic bank accounts	10
Red line criteria for premium bank accounts	12
Red line criteria for premier bank accounts	13
Red line criteria for overdraft bank accounts	15
Contact Fairer Finance	18

Overview

Our product ratings use a set of 'red line' criteria to calculate an underlying score for each product, which translates to a star rating.

Products can achieve between one and five stars. The more comprehensive the product, the more likely it is to be rated highly.

To achieve a five-star rating, products must meet all of our red line criteria. We focus on core product features, and don't give extra marks for unnecessary features or optional extras.

Our current red line criteria are contained in the following pages.

We do not consider price when calculating these ratings.

Current Accounts

Red line 1 – Top-Up fee

Most providers allow customers to add money into their account for free.

To pass this red line, the top-up fee must be £0. This is the mode for the sector and very few providers charge a fee.

Red line 2 – Card issuing fee

Some providers charge a fee to send customers their first debit card.

To pass this red line, the card issuing fee must be £0. This is the mode for the sector and very few providers charge a fee.

Red line 3 – Cancellation fee

The fee for closing the account must be £0. This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 4 – CHAPS fee (receiving)

To pass this red line, the fee for receiving a CHAPS payment must be £0.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 5 – Status enquiry (bankers reference) fee

To pass this red line, the fee for a status enquiry must be £20 or less.

This is double the mode for the sector.

Red line 6 – Cash withdrawal fee in UK

To pass this red line, the cash withdrawal fee must be £0.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 7 – Card payment fee in UK

To pass this red line, the fee for paying by card must be £0.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 8 - Paying into account with cheque fee

To pass this red line, the cost of depositing a cheque must be £0.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 9 - Cheque returned unpaid fee

To pass this red line, the fee for returning a cheque unpaid must be £20 or less.

This is double the mode for the sector.

Red line 10 - Cancelling cheque fee

To pass this red line, the fee for cancelling a cheque must be £10 or less.

This is double the mode for the sector.

Red line 11 - Bankers draft fee

To pass this red line, if a bankers draft is available it must cost £20 or less.

This is double the mode for the sector.

Red line 12 - Maximum cash machine withdrawal per day

To pass this red line, the limit for daily cash withdrawals must be at least £300.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 13 - 24hr helpline

A 24-hour telephone helpline must be available for customers should they need it. For example, if their card is lost or stolen.

Red line 14 - Joint account holders

To pass this red line, it must be possible to open a joint account.

Red line 15 - Part of FSCS

To pass this red line, the customer's money must be protected by the FSCS.

Red line 16 - E-wallet capability

To pass this red line, the account must support e-wallet capabilities, e.g. google pay.

Red line 17 - App capability

To pass this red line, the account must have an app that customers can use to manage their money.

Red line 18 - Cost Scenario

To pass this red line, the account must cost £15 or less based on our scenario.

This scenario includes the costs and financial rewards of using different features of the account.

We calculate it by combining the following: Annual fee, cost of withdrawing £172 while abroad (average for a UK tourist), cost of spending £306.70 on the card while abroad (average for a UK tourist), the cost of making a single transfer of £1000, the cost of making a single transfer of £25,000, the cost of taking out a £500 overdraft for 14 days (we include this part twice, once with the representative EAR and once with the maximum EAR) and the cost of two replacement cards within a year. From this we then subtract the value of any rewards and benefits the account offers, this gives us the final value for the scenario.

Foreign Use Bank Accounts

Red line 1 – Top-Up fee

Most providers allow customers to add money into their account for free.

To pass this red line, the top-up fee must be £0. This is the mode for the sector and very few providers charge a fee.

Red line 2 - Cost of purchasing abroad

To pass this red line, the cost of spending £306.70 on a card while abroad must be £0. £306.70 is the average amount spent by UK tourists while abroad.

Red line 3 - Cost of taking out cash abroad

To pass this red line, the cost of taking out £172 in cash while abroad must be £0.

£172 is the average amount of cash UK tourists take out while abroad.

Red line 4 - Estimated amount of money customers get back (minus annual fee)

To pass this red line, the estimated monetary value the customer gets back minus the annual fee must be £0 or more.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 5 - Maximum cash machine withdrawal per day

To pass this red line, the limit for daily cash withdrawals must be at least £300.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 6 - Is there a limit on free cash withdrawals

To pass this red line, the cost of withdrawing cash must not change.

Red line 7 - Part of FSCS

To pass this red line, the customer's money must be protected by the FSCS.

Red line 8 - App capability

To pass this red line, the account must have an app that customers can use to manage their money.

Red line 9 – 24-hour helpline

A 24-hour telephone helpline must be available for customers should they need it. For example, if their card is lost or stolen.

Student accounts

Red line 1 – CHAPS fee (receiving)

To pass this red line, the fee for receiving a CHAPS payment must be £0.

Red line 2 – Status enquiry (bankers reference) fee

To pass this red line, the fee for a status enquiry must be £20 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 3 - Arranged overdraft limit

To pass this red line, the arranged overdraft limit must be at least £2,000.

Red line 4 - Tiered repayment of overdraft

To pass this red line, the account must allow for tiered payback of an overdraft on graduation.

Red line 5 - Arranged overdraft cost

To pass this red line, the account must not charge students for using the arranged overdraft.

Red line 6 - 24-hour helpline

A 24-hour telephone helpline must be available for customers should they need it. For example, if their card is lost or stolen.

Red line 7 - Part of FSCS

To pass this red line, the customer's money must be protected by the FSCS.

Red line 8 - E-wallet capability

To pass this red line, the account must support e-wallet capabilities, e.g. google pay.

Red line 9 - App capability

To pass this red line, the account must have an app that customers can use to manage their money.

Red line 10 - Unpaid transaction fee

To pass this red line, the account must not charge an unpaid transaction fee.

The majority of student bank account providers do not charge an unpaid transaction fee.

Red line 11 - Unarranged overdraft fee

To pass this red line, the account must either not offer an unarranged overdraft or not charge for it.

The majority of student bank account providers meet this requirement.

Red line 12 - Cost Scenario

To pass this red line, the account must cost £17.40 or less based on our scenario. This is the lower quartile for the sector.

This scenario includes the costs and financial rewards of using different features of the account.

We calculate it by combining the following: Annual fee, cost of withdrawing £172 while abroad (average for a UK tourist), cost of spending £306.70 on the card while abroad (average for a UK tourist), the cost of making a single transfer of £1000, the cost of making a single transfer of £25,000 and the cost of two replacement cards within a year. From this we then subtract the value of any rewards and benefits the account offers, this gives us the final value for the scenario.

Basic bank accounts

Red line 1 – Top-Up fee

Most providers allow customers to add money into their account for free.

To pass this red line, the top-up fee must be £0. This is the mode for the sector and very few providers charge a fee.

Red line 2 – Cancellation fee

The fee for closing the account must be £0. This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 3 – CHAPS fee (receiving)

To pass this red line, the fee for receiving a CHAPS payment must be £0.

Red line 4 – Status enquiry (bankers reference) fee

To pass this red line, the fee for a status enquiry must be £20 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 5 - Paying into account with cheque fee

To pass this red line, the fee for depositing a cheque must be £0.

This is the mode for the sector.

Red line 6 - cheque returned unpaid fee

To pass this red line, the fee for returning a cheque unpaid must be £16 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 7 - cancelling cheque fee

To pass this red line, the fee for cancelling a cheque must be £10.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 8 - Bankers draft fee

To pass this red line, if offered the fee for a bankers draft must be £20 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 9 - 24-hour helpline

A 24-hour telephone helpline must be available for customers should they need it. For example, if their card is lost or stolen.

Red line 10 - Part of FSCS

To pass this red line, the customer's money must be protected by the FSCS.

Red line 11 - App capability

To pass this red line, the account must have an app that customers can use to manage their money.

Red line 12 - Cost Scenario

To pass this red line, the account must cost £29.10 or less based on our scenario. This is the lower quartile for the sector.

This scenario includes the costs and financial rewards of using different features of the account.

We calculate it by combining the following: Annual fee, cost of withdrawing £172 while abroad (average for a UK tourist), cost of spending £306.70 on the card while abroad (average for a UK tourist), the cost of making a single transfer of £1000, the cost of making a single transfer of £25,000, the cost of four direct debits per month (each valued at £10), the cost of four standing orders per month (each valued at £10), the cost of four cash withdrawals a month (each valued at £30), the cost of one card payment per day (valued at £25), the cost of opening the account and the cost of two replacement cards within a year. From this we then subtract the value of any rewards and benefits the account offers, this gives us the final value for the scenario.

Premium accounts

Red line 1 – Paying into account with cheque fee.

To pass this red line, the fee for depositing a cheque must be £0.

Red line 2 - Cheque returned unpaid fee

To pass this red line, the fee for returning a cheque unpaid must be £16 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 3 - Cancelling cheque fee

To pass this red line, the fee for cancelling a cheque must be £10 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 4 - Bankers draft fee

To pass this red line, if a bankers draft is available it must cost £20 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 5 – 24-hour helpline

A 24-hour telephone helpline must be available for customers should they need it. For example, if their card is lost or stolen.

Red line 6 – Maximum daily cash withdrawal

To pass this red line, the daily ATM limit must be at least £300.

Red line 7 - Joint account holders

To pass this red line, it must be possible to open a joint account.

Red line 8 - Part of FSCS

To pass this red line, the customer's money must be protected by the FSCS.

Red line 9 - E-wallet capability

To pass this red line, the account must support e-wallet capabilities, e.g. google pay.

Red line 10 - App capability

To pass this red line, the account must have an app that customers can use to manage their money.

Red line 11 - Money back scenario

To pass this red line, the account must give customers back £144.67 or more based on our scenario. This is the upper quartile for the sector.

This scenario includes the costs and financial rewards of using different features of the account.

We calculate it by combining the following: Annual fee, cost of withdrawing £172 while abroad (average for a UK tourist), cost of spending £306.70 on the card while abroad (average for a UK tourist), the cost of making a single transfer of £1000, the cost of making a single transfer of £25,000, the cost of taking out a £500 overdraft for 14 days (we include this part twice, once with the representative EAR and once with the maximum EAR) and the cost of two replacement cards within a year. From this we then add the financial value of any rewards and benefits the account offers, this gives us the final value for the scenario.

Premier bank accounts

Red line 1 – Status enquiry (bankers reference) fee

To pass this red line, the fee for a status enquiry must be £20 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 2 – Paying into account with cheque fee.

To pass this red line, the fee for depositing a cheque must be £0.

Red line 3 - Cheque returned unpaid fee

To pass this red line, the fee for returning a cheque unpaid must be £16 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 4 - Cancelling cheque fee

To pass this red line, the fee for cancelling a cheque must be £10 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 5 - Bankers draft fee

To pass this red line, if a bankers draft is available it must cost £20 or less.

This is double the median for the sector. We believe that anything above this is excessive.

Red line 6 – 24-hour helpline

A 24-hour telephone helpline must be available for customers should they need it. For example, if their card is lost or stolen.

Red line 7 – Maximum daily cash withdrawal

To pass this red line, the daily ATM limit must be at least £300.

Red line 8 - Joint account holders

To pass this red line, it must be possible to open a joint account.

Red line 9 - Part of FSCS

To pass this red line, the customer's money must be protected by the FSCS.

Red line 10 - E-wallet capability

To pass this red line, the account must support e-wallet capabilities, e.g. google pay.

Red line 11 - App capability

To pass this red line, the account must have an app that customers can use to manage their money.

Red line 12 - Money back scenario

To pass this red line, the account must give customers back £184 or more based on our scenario. This is the upper quartile for the sector.

This scenario includes the costs and financial rewards of using different features of the account.

We calculate it by combining the following: Annual fee, cost of withdrawing £172 while abroad (average for a UK tourist), cost of spending £306.70 on the card while abroad (average for a UK tourist), the cost of making a single transfer of £1000, the cost of making a single transfer of £25,000, the cost of taking out a £500 overdraft for 14 days (we include this part twice, once with the representative EAR and once with the maximum EAR) and the cost of two replacement cards within a year. From this we then add the financial value of any rewards and benefits the account offers, this gives us the final value for the scenario.

Overdrafts

Red line 1 – Days notice if increase in arranged overdraft fee

To pass this red line, providers must give at least 30 days notice if they are going to change overdraft fees.

We believe this is a reasonable amount of time and gives customers the opportunity to change their provider if they are not happy with the increase.

30 days is the median for the sector.

Red line 2 – Unpaid transaction fee

To pass this red line, providers must not charge an unpaid transaction fee.

The majority of providers no longer charge unpaid transaction fees.

Red line 3 – Overdraft scenario 1 (representative EAR)

To pass this red line, the representative cost of borrowing £100 for 14 days on an arranged overdraft must be £0.00.

We believe that providers should not charge customers for small amounts of borrowing.

£0.00 is the modal cost for this scenario.

Red line 4 – Overdraft scenario 1 (maximum EAR)

To pass this red line, the maximum cost of borrowing £100 for 14 days on an arranged overdraft must be £0.00.

We believe that providers should not charge customers for small amounts of borrowing.

£0.00 is the modal cost for this scenario.

Red line 5 – Overdraft scenario 2 (representative EAR)

To pass this red line, the representative cost of borrowing £500 for 14 days on an arranged overdraft must be £5.59 or less.

£5.59 is the median cost for this scenario.

Red line 6 – Overdraft scenario 2 (maximum EAR)

To pass this red line, the maximum cost of borrowing £500 for 14 days on an arranged overdraft must be £5.89 or less.

£5.89 is the median cost for this scenario.

Red line 7 – Overdraft scenario 3 (representative EAR)

To pass this red line, the representative cost of borrowing £1,000 for 14 days on an arranged overdraft must be £11.34 or less.

£11.34 is the median cost for this scenario.

Red line 8 – Overdraft scenario 3 (maximum EAR)

To pass this red line, the maximum cost of borrowing £1,000 for 14 days on an arranged overdraft must be £11.77 or less.

£11.77 is the median cost for this scenario.

Contact Fairer Finance

James Daley

Managing Director

Kate Doran

Head of Research

corporate@fairerfinance.com